Dun-Haven Dauntless is one of the few remaining sons of Dun-Haven Center Attraction. He is out of Knight's Impeccable who is also the dam of City Hall and Dun-Haven Majestic Motion. Dauntless was shown only twice during his life...both times under the guidance of the late Steve Quaid. Dauntless has a ton of talent and could wear the bridle with the best. Had we persisted in showing Dauntless he may well have developed into a top shelf road pony or harness pony. His son Emperor LF is one of the most talented harness ponies showing today. In the breeding shed Dauntless has rarely had the opportunity to service top-of-the-line mares. At Craycroft Farm he has been exposed to the best of my stock. We have 3 sons and a daughter of his that are longed necked and extreme motioned. His yearling son Craycroft Denali (registration pending) is the freakiest moving foal I have ever raised. I have 4 top quality mares bred to him for 2012.

Craycroft Romulus is a talented young stallion with the conformation and quality needed in today's show ring. He was successfully shown in-hand and was the 2009 SCHA Futurity Champion 2 year old stallion. He was shown in 2011 at a junior road pony to some very good ribbons by an amateur against the top junior road ponies on the Kentucky circuit. Too tall (52") for the Harness division, his real calling in my opinion would be as a cobtail. However, this year I have decided to give him a whirl in the breeding shed in order to see what he will produce. His sire Craycroft Victorious is an extreme-motioned son of DD Flying High and Dun-Haven Flirtation (Impression)...both renowned for their motion. Victorious in limited breeding has sired some very fine show ponies (Craycroft Zebulon, Craycroft Sultan, Craycroft Victorian, High Steppers Simply Awesome) in addition to Romulus. Romulus is a maternal grandson of Ridgelieu's Snuggles...a wildly talented Command Attention daughter who died after producing only one offspring...Heartland Promise...the dam of Craycroft Romulus. Those who have seen Romulus upclose always comment on his great beauty
